

Row label selection on a pop-up screen on Liquid UI Android

Purpose: To provide user the opportunity of selecting the row label on a Pop-up screen to perform further actions.

Pre-requisites: Liquid UI Android version “3.0.8.0” or later.

Example Steps:

1. Navigate to the transaction “sm04”. Select the row and tap on the toolbar pushbutton “session”.

The screenshot displays the Liquid UI Android interface. At the top, there is a header bar with the Liquid logo, the text "User Session...", a search icon, and a settings icon. Below the header is a toolbar with several icons, including a "Session" button which is highlighted with a red box. To the right of the toolbar is a green "ENTER" button. Below the toolbar is a table with three columns: CLIENT, USER ID, and CLIENT HOST. The first row is highlighted in yellow and has a red box around the CLIENT cell. The second row is highlighted in light blue. Below the table, there is a message: "8 user logons with 10 back-end sessions".

	CLIENT	USER ID	CLIENT HOST
<input type="checkbox"/>	800	SABIR	Nexus 5 6.0.1
	800	SABIR	sabir64lt

2. On the pop-up screen “Back-End Sessions”, long tap on a row label until you get the pop-up with options “select | Help”. Choose the option “select”.
